v.	)	ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S
	)	MOTION TO CONTINUE NOTING
D.J. & SONS TRUCKING, INC.,	)	DATE OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR
a Washington Corporation,	)	SUMMARY JUDGMENT
	)
Defendant.	)
	)

Defendant filed a motion to continue the noting date of plaintiff's motion for summary judgment. (Dkt. 13.) Defendant's counsel seeks to continue the noting date from September 8, 2006 to September 29, 2006. He requests the continuance due to his obligations in a variety of other legal matters. Plaintiff objects to defendant's request. (Dkt. 16.) In support, plaintiff points to the objective of promptly resolving Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA") cases of this kind, and the fact that defendant did not raise any substantive defenses in its answer to plaintiff's complaint.

Having considered defendant's motion and plaintiff's objection, the Court hereby finds and ORDERS:

(1) Defendant's motion is GRANTED. Defendant reasonably requests a relatively short extension of the noting date and provides sufficient justification for the requested extension.

01 Moreover, plaintiff fails to provide any compelling reason for denying defendant's request. As 02 such, plaintiff's motion for summary judgment (Dkt. 9) is hereby renoted for consideration on 03 September 29, 2006.

04 (2) The Clerk is directed to send copies of this Order to counsel for plaintiff and
05 defendant.

06 DATED this 23rd day of August, 2006.
